APPLICATION PACKAGE

Your application package is comprised of all four of the items listed below, and are required for your application package to be considered:

1. Completed and signed application form. If you are unable to digitally sign the application, you can print the application, sign it, and scan it.
2. Extracurricular Activity and Community Service Chart, even if you leave it blank.
3. Personal Goals essay. Tell us what personally motivates you to attend college. This can relate back to your childhood, your family, or to a mentor who inspired you, for example. Be creative! Tell us how you hope to use your college education to inspire others. You may also include information about any extraordinary financial needs in the essay.
4. Have your school send copies of your high school (freshman students only) or college transcripts, through fall semester or winter quarter to scholarship@theca hp.org. Request these from your school early, as many registrar offices close for the summer. Minimum unweighted GPA of 3.0 required to be considered.
